INTO THE HIGHER TIMELINE REALITIES – PART 2

BY DRUPITER ASCENDING // COSMIC LIGHT FORCE ON TELEGRAM: @DRUE86

In the previous 'How to Quantum Time-Jump into Higher Timelines' – we have clarity that all dimensions exist in the same physical spacetime. The Divine Plasmic Energy of a Human Soul moves through 'Infinite Still Frames' in a physical quantum spacetime reality – which only becomes 'Alive or EnLighten' when a Divine Plasmic Energy of the Human Soul is inside that 'Still Frame' reality at that 'Present Moment' of Now.

Quantum Dimensions are inward. Dimensions are determined or magnetized by Human Brain Waves. There are five main brain waves. The levels of neural activity are recorded on an Electroencephalography (EEG) machine, which is used to monitor electrical brain waves. It does so when negatively charged electrodes are placed along the scalp, while the positively charged ionic current of the active neurons in the brain cause a magnetic disruption in the frequency of the electrodes, displaying a dynamic amplitude of neural activity.

The measurements of neuron frequency groups:

Delta (0-4 Hz)

Theta (4-8 Hz)

Alpha (8-12 Hz)

Beta (12-40 Hz)

Gamma (40-100 Hz)

The 'Gamma' brain waves have the most direct and potent effect on our physical quantum realm. This connects to all the activity on Earth's Schumann Resonance and Cumiana Electric Field. It is also the foundation of the current trending subject of '5D' or Fifth Dimension – as being in '5D' is in a Gamma State of being in 40 Hz and higher.

It is in Gamma brain waves where Humans and even children are able to 'see' their immediate environment without using their eyes. 'Remote Viewing' is another superhuman ability – to view past One's immediate surroundings. A Human can be on one side of the Earth and can 'Remote View' areas in other parts of the world.

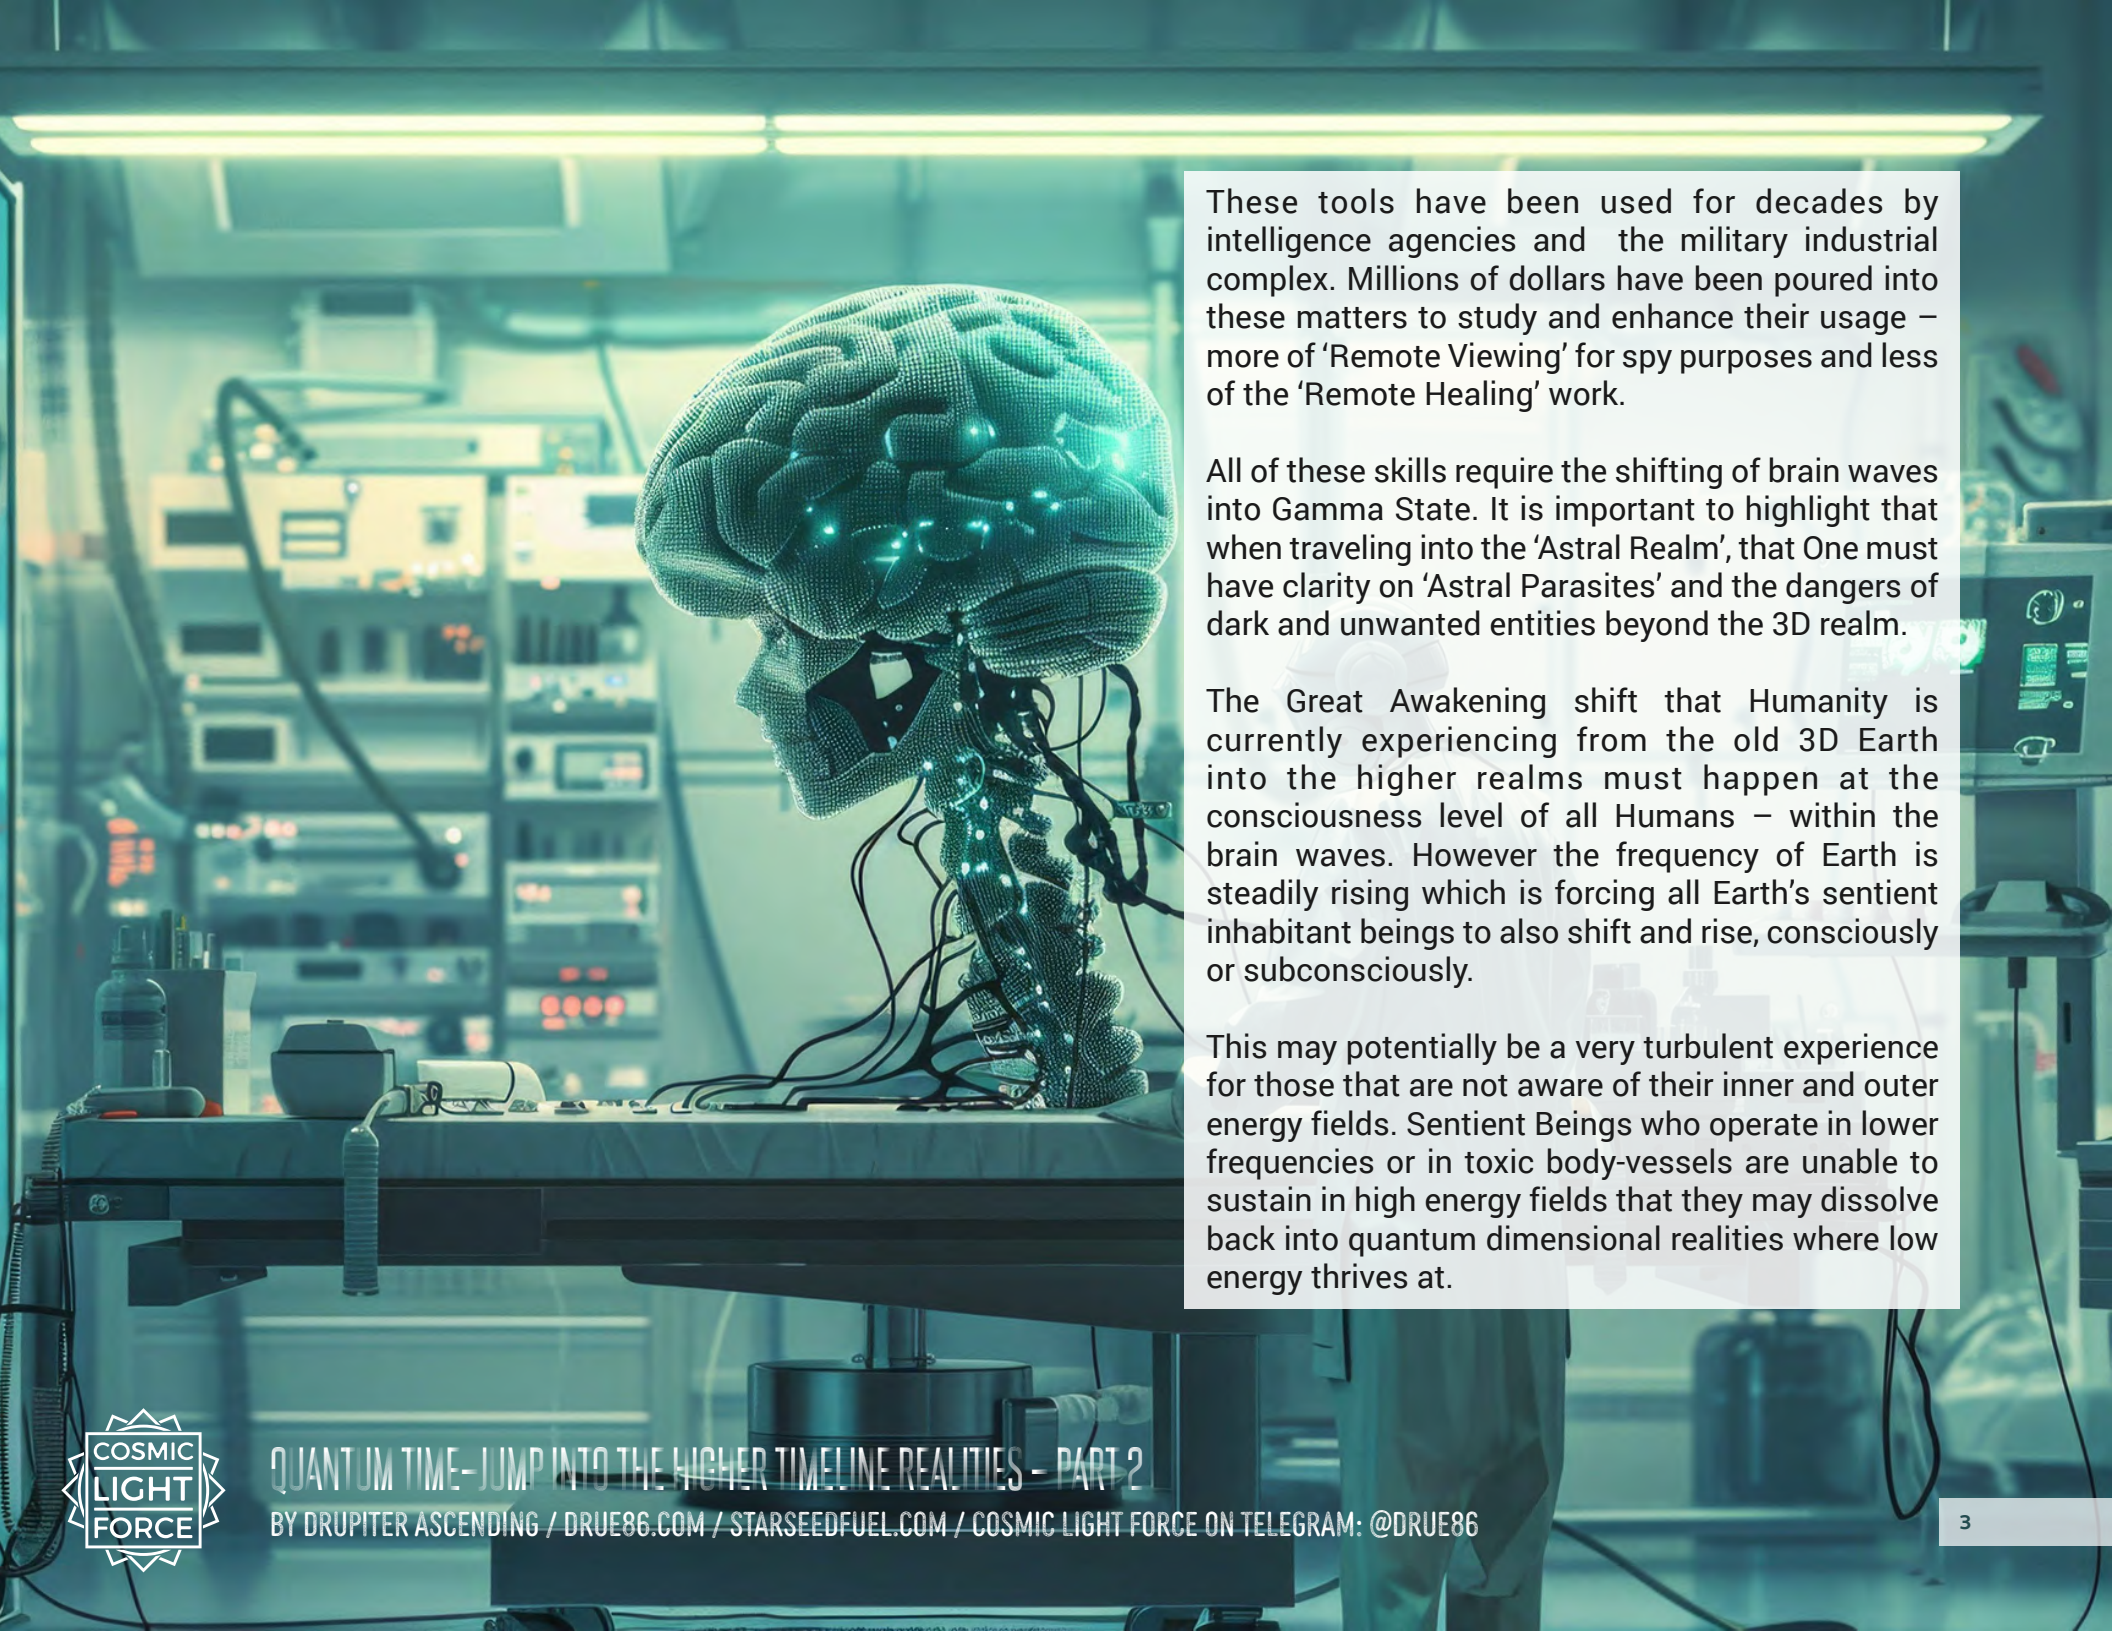

It is very similar to 'Astral Travel or Astral Projection', which is a controlled 'out of body' experience. In the 'Astral Realm', the traveler may move into other unseen realms and not necessarily in the known physical world, whereas 'Remote Viewing' is traveling within the known physical world without the Human body.

There is also 'Remote Healing or Quantum Remote Healing'. This is the ability to do reiki or Energy work on someone that is not in your physical presence. 'Remote Healing' is essentially 'Remote Viewing' of the 'patient' at their physical location while performing Energy Healing Work on them.

QUANTUM TIME-JUMP INTO THE HIGHER TIMELINE REALITIES – PART 2

These tools have been used for decades by intelligence agencies and the military industrial complex. Millions of dollars have been poured into these matters to study and enhance their usage – more of ‘Remote Viewing’ for spy purposes and less of the ‘Remote Healing’ work.

All of these skills require the shifting of brain waves into Gamma State. It is important to highlight that when traveling into the ‘Astral Realm’, that One must have clarity on ‘Astral Parasites’ and the dangers of dark and unwanted entities beyond the 3D realm.

The Great Awakening shift that Humanity is currently experiencing from the old 3D Earth into the higher realms must happen at the consciousness level of all Humans – within the brain waves. However the frequency of Earth is steadily rising which is forcing all Earth’s sentient inhabitant beings to also shift and rise, consciously or subconsciously.

This may potentially be a very turbulent experience for those that are not aware of their inner and outer energy fields. Sentient Beings who operate in lower frequencies or in toxic body-vessels are unable to sustain in high energy fields that they may dissolve back into quantum dimensional realities where low energy thrives at.

Quick Summary of the first (4) Dimensions

First Dimension (1D) – the ALL SOURCE ENERGY. This is symbolized as a ‘Dot’. The One.

Second Dimension (2D) – the splitting of One Source Energy, to create Duality. A Positive and Negative charge Energy. This duality is symbolized as ‘One Line’ – North and South or East and West.

Third Dimension (3D) – as Source Energy splits, expanding and moving further away from one another, frequency, vibration and waves become structure Sound and Light, creating form and matter. The first physical expression of Source Energy is symbolized as a ‘Triangle’.

Matter, movements and travel, in 3D physical spacetime, is now possible. Within the multi-dimensional realities, the Sound and Light of 3D physical reality, make up only about one percent of the full spectrum of realities. The vast rest of the whole multidimensional realities are unseen or heard by 3rd dimensional sentient beings. Human life on Earth mainly exists here now.

Fourth Dimension (4D) – the awareness and existence of a quantum spacetime that holds all 3D physical realities, movements and travel via the Timelines. This is symbolized by a ‘Square’. Each Square represents One Reality and Timeline. There are an infinite amount of ‘Squares’ that appear to be spinning in a circular motion. This represents all the Infinite Quantum Realities and Timelines. The Infinite spinning ‘Squares’ appear back to a circle of The One. Our current physical realm also houses ‘4D Sentient Beings’ and they have abilities to move past 3D’s limited reality. Some of these ‘4D Sentient Beings’ may be dark entities, astral parasites, ghosts, and paranormal activities beyond the third dimension. Higher interdimensional Sentient Beings can also exist in this dimension – such as Angels or Angelics, Spirit Guides, Family Ancestors, Soul Family, Earth Elementals, Light Beings, Ascended Masters, Starseeds, cosmic cousins or friends, and all other interdimensional non-terrestrials.

Our Earth realm exists in 3D/4D quantum realities. A mass majority of Humans only operate in 3D realities, while the old rulers of Earth have been operating in 4D – thus having the ability to rule over 3D beings more easily.

4D has Four Levels: Expression, Experience, Integration, Ascension.

‘Expression’ is the Inner Energy that is birthed into the physical world. ‘Experience’ is to experiment with all 3D physical senses (touch, smell, hear, feel, sense) and expressions. Experiencing is how we learn and gain Knowledge of Self. ‘Integration’ is gathering all information from experiences, with full awareness, to self-realization One’s true purpose. As the Energy expresses itself outwards, ‘Integration’ is the wisdom gained from experiencing, back to the Inner Self.

Humanity is here now – the ‘Integration’ of all of our collective lives and experiences. The Great Awakening is knowing who we are, our true self, to enter the next journey.

‘Ascension’ is the transcendence of all our lives’ lessons – the continuation to higher consciousness into a new realm. All energies (dark or light) created must be recognized. If the journey is to experience more lessons, it will continue. If the journey is to ascend, then all old energies must dissolve to become anLIGHTened Ascended Master.

Higher Consciousness is a ‘Centripetal Life Force Energy’ vortex spiraling up into the higher realms and timelines – moving upwards to the highest center-point of the ‘Square’. This movement is represented as a ‘Caduceus’. The caduceus symbol is also represented in a staff carried by Hermes in Greek mythology and the medical sign.

The highest point of all 4D timelines is represented as a ‘Square Pyramid’ – this is the portal to 5D. The Schumann Resonance have been showing 5D frequencies much more within the last decade. The mass consciousness of Humans becoming aware of the 4th and 5th dimension is our current State of Being on Earth. As we move into different Source Energies, the existence and expression of the One is infinite and inexhaustible – what we call Oneness.

The quantum realm is Oneness – connected by the Aether.

Your Energetic Signature affects your quantum realities through the daily portals. Every new quantum realm you step into completely changes. The physical differences are very subtle until the actual formation of manifestations and creations. Only in stillness can we feel and see the subtleness of the Energetic Signature within the Present Moment of Reality we are in.

It is often said that the Human Body is the 'LIGHT-BODY' vessel or ship. We move, navigate and maneuver throughout the quantum realms and timelines with our organic body-vessel of Light – but to be more accurate, our body-vessel is technically not the ship, but rather more of the 'ENGINE' of the ship. If the body is the engine, then what is the actual physical ship?

The 'Ship' is your physical quantum reality at any given moment.

Everything you can see, hear, touch – all areas of your immediate environment within your physical senses is part of your 'Ship'. This physical quantum realm becomes your whole ship and you have the abilities to maneuver through different quantum timelines, even if you're just taking a bath and doing a water cleanse.

In stillness, a Divine Plasmic Energy of a Human Soul, in YOU the quantum being, and your whole ship (your physical environment) can shift into infinite quantum realms and timelines. Many Humans are not aware of it... yet.

Within the auric field, we have a torus field. It is electromagnetic. Magnetics can defy gravity. Your Light-Body, in the auric field, is the brain or the engine of your quantum physical environment.

Even in stillness, deep meditation, within the quantum atomic level, everything is constantly moving. The breath is the gas pedal. The intention is the steering wheel. Total relaxation, flow state, zero point energy – Gamma brain waves must be activated.

It may appear in the physical that nothing is happening, but on a quantum level, things are magnetizing and shifting. The torus field will become stronger. The engine has started. All cells and molecules are spinning consciously – in centripetal 'Life Force Energy' vortex spirals, as a caduceus pattern. DNA is created and coded within this pattern. The GOD code is literally written and installed in ALL Human DNA. The start of the engine moves the rest of the 'Ship' – our immediate environment is quantum matter. The whole physical reality can shift into higher energetic realms as all atoms and molecules that make up our physical environment are also shifting and magnetizing in frequency.

This shift in frequency is guided by your intention and how much Energy or fuel is in the body-vessel and the whole 'Ship'. This is how we automatically magnetize to the physical properties of the higher timeline realities.

For instance, meditating alone in your closed room – you, the engine starts, and the entire room shifts in frequency. Your room appears to be quiet and still, but in quantum reality, it is shifting into higher frequencies by you. Many Humans unconsciously can feel 'good energy or good vibes' in certain places and vice versa – some places have bad energy or bad vibes.

Your entire room – the amount of Energy and its Energetic Signature within your body-vessel is One with your physical quantum realm, is magnetizing into the realities of the higher timelines – a parallel universe of the same exact another YOU, but a New YOU, new room, house, neighborhood, city, state, country, and New Earth. A whole new parallel universe that appears to be the old one but consists of a 'Higher Energetic Signature' which will manifest a completely different set of physical timeline events.

QUANTUM TIME-JUMP INTO THE HIGHER TIMELINE REALITIES – PART 2

BY DRUPITER ASCENDING / DRUE86.COM / STARSEEDFUEL.COM / COSMIC LIGHT FORCE ON TELEGRAM: @DRUE86

In this higher timeline reality, you are different and everyone you know will also have a different energetic signature – however from a 3D perspective, it will appear as it is the same. Subtle changes can only be noticed by a clear and keen perception.

Maneuvering in the quantum reality will be easier if you are alone at first, in a smaller confined space. Quantum realities in public spaces will require more energy and more masterful skills, just like moving a rock is easier than moving a boulder or maneuvering a smaller boat is easier than a large ship.

Although invisible, 'Energetic Weight' is still made of mass – like 'air pressure'. The more 'Energetic Weight' we carry, the slower we are capable of moving through the quantum realms. In a race, if one is dressed as a track runner, while the other is dressed in ski gear and boots – it would be obvious that the track runner has a major advantage over the one wearing heavy ski gear.

Energetic Weight also equates to 'WAIT'. Carrying heavy 'Energetic Weight' creates a longer 'waiting' time to move within the quantum realms, which also creates a longer 'wait' for desired manifestations.

Being in areas where there's other Humans, beings, strangers – that carries a different Energetic Signature, may potentially dilute the potency of your fuel and power to move within the realms and timelines. It is best to practice this solo in your own closed environment. Carrying the energy weight of strangers is not only extra and unnecessary weight but it can potentially distort the destination and divert it to other unwanted timelines.

Once you and others have practiced this, it is possible to do group travels. Our minds work as batteries and the more batteries or engines that come together for the same goal or destination, it will help greatly. This is the same concept of brainstorming or think tank groups, mass meditations, etc.

Everyone talks about Energy, but it is vitally important to practice the movement of Energy. This is a skill like anything else, which requires lots of practice. It takes years of dedicated practice and discipline to earn a black belt in karate, or becoming a professional athlete, a ballerina, a piano player, a car mechanic or any skill trade. So it is foolish to think that someone who has recently learned about Energy work, can become an Energy worker immediately. Learn, practice, and cultivate your own Energy flow. Study and practice 'Qigong' or 'Tai Chi'. Learn about 'Reiki'. Practice reiki on yourself. Practice breathwork, meditation and yoga. Learn and practice 'Lucid Dreaming' – as this will help you mold Sound and Light particles and waves in the physical quantum realm.

Qigong is the art and practice of moving energy, or qi, through the body. It is commonly used by Taoist and Buddhist monks, Martial artists, traditional and Chinese healers, yet millions of people around the world have come to know and practice this beautiful art. Qigong is the practice of slow body movements. This will help you to magnetize, accumulate, and move Energy in the Aetheric Field. Think of this Energy like sand. If you scoop up sand fast with your bare hands, the sand will fall through your fingers, but when you scoop up sand slowly with your hands, you will be able to scoop much more sand. The Aetheric Energy works similarly.

You will need Energy in order to move Energy. There are 5 main Energy Sources.

1) Heart – Infinite Energy through Emotion. The body generates an Energetic Signature based on its emotional frequency. This Energy will produce 'juice' within the body's glands. In high vibratory emotions, the glands will produce beneficial chemicals for the body. Low emotions will produce harmful juices. If the harmful juice is not dissolved, then it can potentially become a disease. Nuclear power comes from within the atom. Nuclear power can be activated by the Sacred Heart – which can produce the Heart Explosion, with the power to change everything in quantum matter and reality.

2) Life Force Energy/Prana/Chi/Qi – the Inner Energy of the Body. All living things have Life Force Energy, even non-living elements have different levels of this. Life Force Energy within the body must flow and cannot be stagnant. Once Energy becomes stagnant in the body, diseases can occur. Think of flowing water – living structured water is water in motion, like the ebb and flow or vortex water. Stagnant water is dead, like tap water. The Human body is made of 70% water. This water must flow with living Energy in order for the body to thrive.

3) Crown Chakra – the Connection to Source. This is the other half of 'Heart & Mind Coherence' – Pineal Gland Activation. The Crown Chakra is the receiver (downloader) of Information, Light and Energy – direct from the higher realms, the Akashic Records, or The ONE ALL CREATOR SOURCE GOD.

4) Root Chakra/Sexual Energy/Kundalini – the Most Powerful Energy in the Human Body. This is the fuel source of the Human Body. The Root Chakra has power to CREATE LIFE. The 'Hara' is the battery for this Energy. Bringing the Root Energy upwards (Awakened Kundalini) towards the Crown literally connects Heaven and Earth, making YOU the physical bridge. Kundalini is also fundamental in Tantra or Tantric Sex for healing. However, Tantra was also hijacked by the Archonic Sexual Misery Program – to push perversion disguised as 'women's sexual freedom', for casual sexual experiences, sex with multiple partners, strangers, one night stands, confusing sexuality and distorting Love. All for ONE goal – to pass and spread dark negative entity attachments within Humans, siphon and drain their (Life Force) Loosh Energy.

5) The Aether – Free Energy Everywhere. Think Tesla Free Energy Machine. Humans already use this Energy unconsciously, but with intention, higher awareness and practice, we have the ability to use this Energy beyond our imagination. Astral Projection, Remote Viewing, Remote Healing, Alchemy, Prayers, Mass Meditation ALL work via the Aetheric 'Fractal Quantum' Field. Grounding Energy allows One to charge up from the Aetheric Energy by connecting with Earth's Elementals in nature.

By having clarity on the 5 Energy Sources, we can practice our ability to 'move Energy'.

In stillness, you will learn how to magnetize and activate the Aetheric Energy around you – then with slow movements you will be able to ‘move the Aetheric Energy’ with you. Once you are able to ‘move Energy’, you can then do other things with it – such as guide it, infused it within yourself, charge or heal yourself, shift and maneuver your quantum spacetime reality, send the Energy out into the quantum realms to others, to heal others, as the possibilities are limitless. Intention is significant too, as this Energy cannot work with low or negative intentions. Those that try will experience intense and possibly deadly karma and backfire.

Our 'Inner Child' Energy is one of the most powerful forces we can tap into. The Inner Child Energy determines the flow of the inexhaustible Power Source for manifestations of the Present-Self. Bringing your Inner Child back to its original healthy and happy state is the keystone to (re)creating your personal Heaven on Earth.

It is important to note that the dark rulers of Earth have sought, targeted and practiced satanic rituals on children by using their blood to extract this powerful 'Inner Child' Energy, destroying all innocence and installing the Archonic Sexual Misery Program.

The 'Inner Child' connects with the 'Love Frequency' and the 'Heart Activation' into the 'Heart and Mind Coherence'. When One achieves a Heart and Mind Coherence that resonates harmonious Love frequencies outward, it enhances the fullest potential of your physical being – which will magnetize One to experience manifestations and creations of the higher timelines.

The 'Inner Child' Energy also creates 'Universal Life Comedy'. Our quantum realm communicates with us through everything and anything in our physical spacetime. God has a huge sense of humor. You will know that you are elevating into the Higher Realms when you recognize more and more 'comedy' in your life, and much of it will be 'inside jokes', where only YOU will see or get it. Within our day, we should experience many laughing moments and gut busting laughs from Universal Life Comedy.

QUANTUM TIME- JUMP INTO THE HIGHER TIMELINE REALITIES - PART 2

BY DRUPITER ASCENDING / DRUE86.COM / STARSEEDFUEL.COM / COSMIC LIGHT FORCE ON TELEGRAM: @DRUE86

The Life Comedy is strongly connected to 'Synchronicities'. Many recognize simple synchronicities such as numbers like 11:11, 333, 555, 888, etc. Synchronicities may also be thinking of someone and that someone sends you a text message.

Synchronicities are 'Instant Manifestations'. They are the very thing you need to see or experience at that moment, to move forward. They are also small tests for One's awareness of their Present Moment – to see if you recognize them. Acknowledge them and interact with them. Recognize all synchronicities, be grateful for them, no matter how small or insignificant they seem, and expect more and greater ones to come. They will grow and expand with recognition and give it more of your Energy.

'Instant Manifestation' happens in neutral Zero Point Energy. It is a thought or idea that is instantly realized into the physical realm. It is a moment of pure magick created.

An 'Instant Manifestation' of a lost or needed key is a good thing, but an 'Instant Manifestation' of a needed house or home is a great thing. Know that both 'house and key' hold the same 'Energetic Value' in the quantum realm. The true currency to purchase these items – to bring them into physical fruition is the amount of Energy within the body-vessel and its ability to magnetize into that specific timeline which holds this physical reality true.

Synchronicities are your road signs towards the Higher Realms. The more synchronicities you experience, the more you will know that you are on the right path. Your day should be full of nonstop synchronicities – small, big, and many should be belly-aching laughing ones.

As you observe what is unfolding and manifesting in your daily quantum realm, the ALL ONE CREATOR SOURCE GOD, which also contains the Infinite Aetheric Supreme Consciousness of the Akashic Intelligence, is really observing YOU. Your Divine Quantum Realm has been communicating with you since birth.

Your Lightbody-vessel ship is a battery and engine, but you are also a quantum supercomputer with abilities to 'receive' information – this means your entire body-vessel is also a 'receiver' for PLASMA from the Aetheric Field. The more plasma is absorbed, the stronger and bigger the auric field becomes. The skin is the largest organ on the Human body. The skin is also your antenna. The more skin that is not covered by clothing, especially matrix-produced apparel laced with toxins and chemicals, the 'reception' will be more and more clearer.

Think of the science behind 'Nature or Forest immersion'. In Japan, it is known as Shinrin-Yoku or Forest Bathing – absorbing the forest atmosphere and nature for vast health benefits. Two hours of forest therapy can reduce blood pressure, lower cortisol, improve cardiovascular and metabolic health, lower blood sugar levels, improve concentration and memory, lift depression, improve energy, boost the immune system and increase NK cells, increase anti-cancer protein production and much more.

Much of these benefits are absorbed by the skin being exposed to the negative ions and nature's plasma in the Aether. At the base of the brainstem is the Medulla Oblongata – the receiver of Cosmic Energy and the Supreme Conscious Intelligence, but it is through the skin that magnetizes Energy and Light into the Human auric field, which flows down in a caduceus pattern into the Crown Chakra.

Your Divine Quantum Realm has been waiting for the harvest of your evolving consciousness – ready to communicate, interact, and build a relationship with it.

Ignite your Inner Light and achieve Pure Bliss. This sacred event happens when One slows down, in total stillness and realizes their fullest potential, truly connecting with ALL and becoming One with Everything and Everywhere, in that very Present Moment. An incredible alchemic reaction takes place, at all levels, inside the Human body – similar to a nuclear fusion, which was achievable by splitting an atom. This alignment activates the cellular, biological, chemical, physical, emotional, energetic, and aetheric body at once. This event also brings both the left and right hemisphere of the brain into one frequency – when this happens, the Human body also experiences ‘piloerection’ or goosebumps.

Goosebumps, tingles, chills up the spine, and even butterflies in the stomach are strong physical ‘emotional feelings’ when our innate senses are nudging us to pay extra attention.

It is the combination feeling of Love, samadhi, kundalini, euphoria, ecstasy, heaven, happiness, even orgasm – it is Pure Bliss. Within this single Present Moment of Pure Bliss, One can experience the inexhaustible and absolute Power and Creation of the ALL ONE SOURCE GOD. This Power Source and fuel can instantly change everything – propelling One into massive Quantum Timeline Leaps.

The most magnificent element of this Inner Ignition of Pure Bliss is the Present Moment and we are in a continuous flow of nonstop Present Moments, which means we have infinite chances to experience this most incredible inner alchemy of Self – while launching ourselves into the Highest Realms. It is in the state of Pure Bliss where ‘Self-Healing’ can be achieved, but the ability to achieve this state of being abundantly, allows One to also achieve ‘Immortality’.

It is in this state of being, where the Human body's 100 trillion cells experience a nuclear-like implosion and connect into the ALL through the Aether. This is also known as the Monadic Spark or the activation of the Merkaba.

The Merkaba is an energetic field that surrounds us in a higher state of consciousness. In Hebrew, Merkaba means chariot or vehicle – also defined as Mer = Light / Ka = Spirit / Ba = Body. It is shaped of a Star Tetrahedron and this formation allows our Lightbody to travel to higher dimensions. The Merkabic Monad Activation can repair and heal all organic parts of the Human Being. The energetic particle wave spectrum of the 12-D Golden White Ray holds the Khristos Arc-Light Codes and the Blueprint of the 144 Subharmonic Strings from the entire Universal Time Matrix – the original 12 Strand DNA, Human Avatar.

It is the physical manifestation of – 'As Above, So Below'. This is represented by two triangular cones mirrored to meet at the tips. One is the physical matter, with Energy spiraling down into 'Zero Point of the Event Horizon', to nothingness – then coming out on the other side of the second triangular cone and spiraling outwards into the Aetheric Field.

When One achieves this state of being, the Human Being can walk through dense physical matters of the quantum realm. These states of being are at the highest levels of Self-Mastery – to be the Master of Self, Master the physical matter and events within your quantum reality and environment.

We know it's important to 'protect your Energy'. The physical quantum matrix society is full of distractions, distortions, and traps. When you vibrate high, your inner Light glows and this also attracts the flies, vampires, and parasites. Once you turn this 'inner Light ON', you must continue to expand this Light and your auric field into a shield of protection.

When moving through the matrix, throughout different spacetime realities, mixing with different beings and energies, it requires keen balance, calmness, Heart and Mind coherence, in a fully charged body-vessel, Higher Energy resonance, within an expanded auric field.

Keep your personal Energy pure and undiluted, otherwise with mixed 'unknown' energies, it can potentially produce and unfold physical manifestations that may be undesirable or unpleasant experiences.

Expand the 'Invisible Frequency'.

When you oscillate in your highest frequency – connected to the Divine Aetheric Source, you are inside your auric field and it becomes your shield of protection. Be aware of your auric field. It is conscious. Build a relationship with it. Speak to it outloud. Words, sounds and intention are powerful. Speak to it with Prayers. Strengthen your auric field. Build confidence in it. This is the Eye of the Storm when you traverse through the matrix, especially in dense and heavy populated areas, such as the airport, public events, etc.

When you are in this higher frequency within your auric field, you will know that most everyday Humans are completely distracted. They will seem like 'non-player characters' (NPC's). You will be the NPC to them and that's a good thing. The less engagement from them, the better. A NPC or an energetically-dense person can potentially divert or disrupt your 'smooth-sailing' timeline journey. You will then only cross paths with those you were meant to cross paths with, even if it seems insignificant, to bring awareness to a possible synchronicity or sign.

In the higher frequencies, those in the lower or dense frequencies and energies will not even notice you. You are not on their radar in the physical realm. This is like two programs on tv playing at the same time, but on two different channels, two different frequencies, but you can only see one or the other – not both simultaneously. Stay on your channel.

This is the 'invisible frequency'. You can choose and intend to vibrate at your highest frequency, so that you will become invisible to many lower vibrational or 3D beings. This is a great method to move through the public realms as it will allow you to move much faster with the least amount of friction and disruptions.

Combine all of the Energy forces and intentionally moving into your highest timelines, you can travel within the matrix, ride out any storm safely and with confidence within your personal Eye of the Storm shield.

The Jedi Mind Trick – for when One must interact with a 3D agent or avatar. When coming across these Humans, shield up intentionally and start sending Heart Energy towards this person, even before contact. Upon contact, be kind, soft-spoken, humble and have gratitude that this person will not be the cause of any delay problems or doing any harm to you. If the person is a NPC or a bot, know that your Energy will scramble theirs.

For example, a check-in or TSA agent may give another person a difficult time for whatever reason, but when you interact with this person, and because your vibration is so high, the person will not take notice of you or because your auric field may be very distracting – allowing you to pass with ease.

These characters, who may be mean to others, may even be extra helpful towards you only. This is the Jedi Mind Trick and it is REAL, but for those who have skills in 'moving Energy'. This also connects to the science of 'hypnotism' – where the Energy is framed by the hypnotist and the one being hypnotized.

Every Human Being has multiple versions of themselves. Each version of themselves carries a specific Energy frequency. Imagine a mean or hard judge who has a reputation of giving out the harshest sentences. This is one version of him. Many people may even fear him, but he may also be a husband who must answer to his wife. This is another version of him. He may have a five year old daughter and he carries a different Energy when he's with his daughter. He may go bowling with his buddies, drink a beer and watch a ball game with them – that's another version with a different energetic frequency. If he has a mistress, it will definitely be a different Energy frequency, one that no one has seen. In the quantum realm, within the 3D matrix, frame your Energy to all others as 'friend' to flow freely with the least amount of friction.

A great salesperson quickly builds rapport with their potential clients. The salesman is 'framing' a specific Energy with this person, like a friend or someone trustworthy. You can frame the Energy onto anyone – between you and that specific version of themselves, towards your advantage.

When 'Framing Energy' is done to 3D Humans, and because of their lack of awareness in Energy, most of the time, it goes unrealized. This technique is nothing new. It has been used for decades in the matrix world. It is mostly used in manipulating others in negative ways.

However, with the current Higher Energy and powerful Karmic Energy, anyone or anything with ill-intentions will have extreme and deadly backfires. Having clarity on 'Framing Energy' is good so One does not become 'hypnotized' or manipulated by anyone else. It also comes in handy when dealing with a possible bot or NPC to avoid having any disruption, possible issues or problems, and getting dragged into undesirable experiences or events.

These techniques can be done over and over with anyone you may have to interact with – with pure intentions, to not allow yourself to be held or caught up by any unwanted reasons. Your goal is to move or handle whatever is needed in the present 3D matrix with the least amount of friction or resistance within your highly-conscious quantum realm. Maintain the highest vibration by staying in your Heart Space, in your Heart and Mind coherence and avoid any or all dramas that may stir up unwanted energy in the 3D & lower 4D realms.

There is a war for 'total Human control by consciousness and physical body'. It is a battle to keep as many Humans trapped in the lower timelines — to experience negative physical manifested events. We are living in a great paradigm shift, massive energetic downloads, collective disclosure, and chaos in polarized emotions and vibrations, and these diluted and polluted energies may cause physical manifestations to be unpleasant, harmful or even deadly.

Understanding and becoming skillful with Energy within our quantum spacetime realm is vitally important to maneuver during this Great Awakening shift. Higher Energy was expedited and expanded after 2012, and is growing more in power and potency. Everything fluctuates. We have been and are still rising steadily up the higher timelines. All timelines and realities are merging as the lower timelines are collapsing from lack of Energy. The dark realities of the past do not have the Energy to sustain itself.

In our current timelines, the ability to cause massive destruction and harm to Earth and Humanity have been greatly neutralized. The Energy in the lower timelines have been draining. The only Energy Source they have left are unaware Human Beings, and they are desperately trying to siphon their Life Force Energy to sustain.

Meanwhile the Energy within those holding Light and Love are growing more in Power — also manifesting more into personal and collective physical reality, allowing Humans and other Beings to experience and reaffirm this expanding truth.

Physical reality is an ebb and flow between quantum timeline events — at a personal and collective level. All Humans and Beings cross through infinite quantum timelines that appear to be ONE seamless timeline of events, through the Divine Plasmic Electromagnetic Energy. This happens at any given moment to EVERYONE — whether they are aware of it or not. Those who have gained a higher awareness can learn to adjust their course of directions and be co-captain or co-creator, and start to 'Cosmic Light Surf' the aetheric waves and navigate through the infinite quantum spacetime field and build the best version of their own physical reality.

Happy Travels and Manifestations!
